

Types of allies

Which one will you be?

Cheerleader

Are visible supporters of women across meetings, conferences, social media

Take action by...

To provide a voice that's heard by large audiences

Amplifier

Ensure that women are heard, valued and respected

Highlighting the contributions of others and communicates women's needs

Researcher

Is hungry for knowledge about the real-life experiences of women working for Keller

Their interest is authentic and they want to listen and learn about the challenges

Intervener

Takes action and dives in!

Call out offensive behaviour, taking opportunities to defend and educate

Supporter

A supporter is a trusted confidante for women

They create a security of trust and support where women are heard, respected and safe

Start today and be active in supporting our women in construction. Contact your local KWIC AMEA team member to be connected to more information, events and where to find support.